The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 28. 1717.

London, October 28.
On Saturday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Genoa, October 17.

A Spaniſh Man of War, and a French Tranſport Ship, arrived the two Days paſt, in ſeven Days from Cagliari, with Part of the Garriſon of that Place, which ſurrender'd the 1ſt Inſtant. The Particulars which we have hitherto learnt are as follow. On the 28th of September, the Marquis de Rubi, Vice-roy of Sardignia, ſeeing that he could no longer defend Cagliari, went out of the Caſtle with 150 Horſe, to retire to Larghesſo; but the Spaniards who attack'd him in his March, kill'd the greateſt Part of his Guard, ſo that he enter'd that Place with but 60 Horſe. The next Day Colonel Carteras, to whom the Marquis had left the Command of Cagliari, demanded to capitulate; to which the Marquis de Lede reply'd, that the Gariſon muſt ſurrender at Diſcretion: Which being refus'd, Hoſtilities began again on both ſides, and continued till the firſt of this Month, at which time the following Articles were agreed upon.

1. That the Officers ſhall march out with their Arms and Baggage.

2. That the Soldiers ſhall leave their Arms in the Place.

3. That the Ships neceſſary ſhall be furniſh'd by the Beſiegers, and convoy'd by a Man of War, to tranſport the Garriſon to Genoa, and not to Naples, with Condition that the Soldiers ſhall not bear Arms for ſix Months.

4. That the Proviſions neceſſary for that Tranſport ſhall alſo be furniſhed.

5. That the Inhabitants of the Iſland, altho' well affected to the Emperour, may quietly remain, and ſhall have three Months time to reſolve whether they will continue to live there, or remove elſewhere, but they ſhall not have Power to alienate their Eſtates.

On the 2d this Capitulation was executed. The Garriſon ſtill conſiſted of 400 Men, but 250 only imbark'd themſelves (the reſt having taken Service with the Spaniards) in three Ships for this Place. The Spaniards loſt near 2000 Men during the Siege. A French Ship arrived here with Salt from Barbary reports, that they met four Neapolitan Gallies, and two Felucca's, ſailing with Succours for Sardignia.

Vienna, Oct. 20. Yeſterday Prince Eugene of Savoy returned hither from his glorious Campaign in Hungary, and went to the Palace of the Favorita, where he was received by his Imperial Majeſty with all poſſible Demonſtrations of Eſteem. The Electoral Prince of Saxony continues ſtill ſo ill, as not to come abroad. The Court will ſoon take Reſolutions upon the Affair of the Spaniſh War, upon which all the Princes of Italy endeavour to excuſe themſelves, as having no Part in it. The new Levies for Recruits go on very well. All is quiet in Hungary and Tranſilvania. We have received Advice from Belgrade, that they have finiſhed the levelling of the Lines and Batteries, and filling up the Trenches, and have cleaned the greateſt Part of the Streets of the City. The Peaſants alſo who were aſſembled to bury the dead Corps, have done that Work, and are return'd home; and the Air is now ſo well freed from the Infect[illegible] that the Sickneſſes which reigned diminiſh da[illegible]. They are now at Work in repairing the Fortifications, and making new Works; to which Purpoſe, many Barks laden with Workmen, and Materials are arrived there from Buda, and other Places.

From the Amſt. Courant, dated Nov. 2.

Vienna, Oct. 20. We hear that Zwornick will be inveſted a-new, by a Blockade of 15000 Men, under the Command of General Montecuculi; and that we ſhall endeavour to take Bihacz. The Emperour has made Prince Eugene a Preſent of a Sword ſet with Diamonds worth 100000 Florins. The Talk of this Place is wholly taken up with the Propoſitions made by the Turks for Peace, which 'tis ſaid conſiſt in theſe Articles. 1. That the Ottoman Port deſires to enter into a laſting Peace and Friendſhip with the Emperour. 2. That if the Emperour will reſtore the Towns and Lands taken from the Turks, the Grand Sultan will pay in ready Money the whole Charge of the War. 3. That if thoſe Propoſitions do not pleaſe, that Miniſters be choſen on both Sides, to enter into Treaty. And laſtly, the Emperour ſhall have the Choice of naming the Place of Treaty. And ſome pretend to add, that the Turks will leave Temeſwaer to the Emperour in the State it now is, provided that the Fortifications of Belgrade be demoliſhed, and no other Fortreſs built between the Danube and the Save.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Hamburgh, Oct. 26. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs from Copenhagen, with Advice, that the Court of Denmark has given Orders, that our Ships going up and down the Elbe ſhall no longer be arreſted at Gluckſtadt, and that all thoſe that have been ſtopt ſhall be releaſed, and the Goods reſtored. But notwithſtanding that, we juſt now hear, that one of our Ships coming from Gottemburg, laden with Iron, and bound for Amſterdam, has been arreſted at Gluckſtadt, where ſhe was obliged by Streſs of Weather to put in. The Miniſter of France has received Orders to give Paſſports to all Ships going for France, and in caſe they are not reſpected at Gluckſtadt, to declare to the Court of Denmark, that the moſt Chriſtian King will look upon it as a Breach of the Peace. The laſt Letters from Norway confirm the Advice of the taking divers Swediſh Ships by M. Tordenſchiold. They write from Copenhagen, that they are no ways alarm'd at the Deſigns of the King of Sweden for entring Norway, the Execution whereof is ſufficiently impracticable at this time.

From the Hague Courant, dated Nov. 3.

Hague, Nov. 2. The Lord Cadogan receiv'd an Expreſs laſt Saturday Night from England, which, after he had ſpoken with ſome Lords of our Regency, he diſpatch'd to the Imperial Court. And his Excellency having had many Conferences with our Miniſters, and thoſe of Foreign Princes, is now taking his Leave in order to ſet out on Thurſday or Friday for London. This Morning the Swediſh Secretary Preis was in Conference with the Deputies of the States, as was alſo M. Magis the Elector of Cologn's Miniſter.

London, October 28.
Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from France.
From the Paris News-Letter.

Paris, Nov. 3. Letters from Madrid of the 19th paſt adviſe, that a Courier was arriv'd there from the Marquis de Lede with ſix Standards and Colours, and the News that Cagliari and its Caſtle was ſurrender'd by Capitulation. That the Garriſon conſiſting of 600 Men, was to have been tranſported to Genoa, but that the greateſt part of them had taken Service in the Spaniſh Army, the reſt were, according to the Capitulation, ſent away; and that after that Expedition, the Marquis de Lede had ſent a Detachment to take the Fort of Alguera in the ſame Iſland.

Just Published,

A Vindication of the Lord Bishop of Bangor. Wherein is consider'd, The true Notion of Religious Sincerity as available to the Salvation of Men, and of Church Authority, with Respect to the Distinctions between Real, Mere, and Absolute Authority. In Answer to the Exceptions of Mr. Law. By Thomas Pyle, M. A. Lecturer of Lyn Regis, Norfolk. Printed for John Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-Yard. As also his Paraphrase on the Pentateuch, Acts, and Epistles.

The pleasant Odoriferous Tincture for the Breath, Teeth and Gums, a few Drops of which instantly makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and a very short time perfectly cures, so that a disagreeable Breath will never return; it certainly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth extreamly white, clean and beautiful at once using, infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse, absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, tho' never so inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost eaten quite away, and infallibly fastens loose Teeth to Admiration, even in old People, who too often fatally think their Age to be the Occasion. In a word, for most delicately perfuming and quickly curing all ill-scented Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly fastening them when loose, and effectually preserving them from rotting or decaying, and assuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its equal in the World, as great Numbers of the best Quality and Gentry have experienc'd. Is sold only at Mrs. Osborn's, a Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, (containing enough to last a considerable Time) with Directions.

Specifick Drops for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Pain and Noise in the Ears, &c. The laudable Effects of which are truely surprizing, for they remedy all Defects of the Hearing Faculty tho' of some Years standing, almost in an Instant, causing those to Hear exceeding quick and well, who before were in a manner totally Deaf. They effectually remove all Pain occasioned by Cold, comfort and strengthen the Tympanum or Drum of the Ear, free the Auditory Nerve from Obstruction, and rectify all Disorders so absolutely, and in such a short Space of Time, that one would think it almost impossible, did not very great Experience evince the Truth of it. To be had only at the Two Blue Posts, near the Square in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions.

LONDON, Printed by S. GRAY, and Sold by R. BURLEIGH in Amen-Corner.
